The deadline to enter is April 9th. The parade will line-up on the St. Henry's lot (300 block of Court Street) at 10:00 a.m. Out of town judges will be present to judge entries during the line-up before the parade begins. The parade will begin at 11:00 a.m. and will go from the City Hall to Rolwing Park and then disband. Prizes will be given for the top three float entries in the church/civic group or organization category and for the top three float entries in the business category. The theme for the festival this year is "Celebrating 175 Years of Small Town America" because Charleston turns 175 years old in 2012. Use of the theme will be considered when floats are judged.
